Washington, D. C.

Dear Colonel White:

Several Active Members of GSI are interested in a trip to Fontana Village this Fall. Therefore, we are arranging an all-expense ten-day vacation trip at greatly reduced prices. The essential features of the plan are as follows:

1. Leave Washington at 7:00 a.m. on Friday, September 6 and arrive back in Washington about 5:30 p.m. on Sunday, September 15 - a full ten-day trip.
2. The group will consist of only (a) Active Members of GSI, and (b) relatives, friends, and co-workers who are recommended by active GSI members. You get up your own party of relatives and friends.
3. The total cost of the entire ten-day vacation is only $85.50 per person. This includes transportation by bus, meals and lodging on the way down and back, meals at the resort, lodging at the beautiful 56-room Fontana Lodge while at the resort, and the free recreation indicated on the attached Information and Time Schedule. All Lodge rooms are carpeted, most are air conditioned and all with bath and electric heat.
4. The trip down will be by way of Skyline Drive. The return trip will be by way of the Blue Ridge Parkway.
5. The attached Information and Time Schedule describes other features of the trip, the square dances, the free recreation facilities and other recreational activities available at greatly reduced rates.

The members of the Board of Trustees urge that, if at all possible, active GSI members accept this invitation. They want all members to learn more about GSI activities. That is the primary reason for arranging this trip at the estimated cost to the Corporation.

We are including your relatives, friends and co-workers to add to your enjoyment and to assure enough persons to fill at least one bus and thereby get the best and most economical transportation.

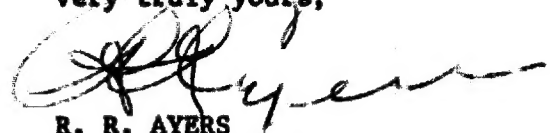

If you are interested in such a trip, and the dates indicated in Item 1 above are not convenient, please let me know which week this Fall would best suit you.

Will you kindly let me know, by July 26, (a) if you will join us on this trip, and (b) the names, addresses and telephone numbers of the persons who will accompany you, or (c) if you cannot be with us this time, whether you are interested in such a trip at some other time.

A reply form and a self-addressed, stamped envelope are enclosed for your convenience.

If it is not possible for you to go, you may, nevertheless, send in the names of relatives, friends and co-workers who would like to join our party.

Very truly yours,

R. R. AYERS
Executive Vice President
